

Communication and Language

The children are learning to listen and speak to each other, to learn new vocabulary, to listen to stories, rhymes and poems, developing skills of conversation, role play and story-telling.

Books everywhere

Role play

Activities to promote talk

