

Expressive arts and design

The children are developing their imagination, curiosity and cultural awareness. They explore and engage with a wide range of media and materials and develop their understanding, self-expression, vocabulary and ability to communicate through the arts.

