

Maths

The children are learning to count confidently and develop a deep understanding of numbers to 10, relationships between them and patterns within those numbers. The children develop their spatial reasoning and learn about shape, space and measures. They learn to be confident and have a go.

